West Boca Medical Center Earns Prestigious American College of Radiology Breast Imaging Accreditation

BOCA RATON, Fla. (January 2012) — West Boca Medical Center is proud to announce that the hospital has achieved accreditation from the American College of Radiology (ACR) for its breast imaging mammography services. This designation confirms that the hospital's MRI unit utilized for the screening and detection of breast cancer has met the ACR's high standards for clinical quality and safety in breast imaging technology.

“This award confirms that West Boca Medical Center is committed to providing the highest level of image quality and patient safety,” said Mitch Feldman, chief executive officer of West Boca Medical Center. “We are proud to announce our Breast MRI ACR accreditation status, as this is a significant achievement for our hospital.”
